Kelli Bahr Named PBC Women's Soccer Defender of the Week

Posted: Oct 26, 2010

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State junior defender Kelli Bahr has been named the Peach Belt Conference's women's soccer Defensive Player of the Week, announced today by league officials.

Bahr played a pivotal role in the Pirates' two one-goal wins last week as AASU clinched its first Peach Belt Conference regular season title. She played all 90 minutes and assisted on the match-winning goal in Wednesday's 2-1 win at Flagler. Bahr then held the conference's leading goal scorer, Anna Svensson of UNC Pembroke, to just one shot in a 2-1 win over the Braves on Saturday.

The Middleton, Wisc., native is a part of a back line that limited opponents to just 17 shots last week and has kept opponents to an average of just 7.1 shots per match this season.

Bahr is the second AASU player to earn PBC Defensive Player of the Week honors, joining senior Carey Patterson, who was the league's defensive player on Sept. 28 as well as Oct. 19.

Bahr and the No. 3-ranked Pirates are next in action on Saturday, October 30, with a 7:00 p.m. showdown with No. 7 Rollins in Winter Park, Fla.
